

Brendon’s “Duffels of Hope” Wish List

Home of the Innocents partners with the Brendon P. Bachelor Foundation to provide children with a sense of security and hope by equipping them with duffel bags containing necessities, such as toiletries.

Duffel bags are distributed to young people who enter the Home’s emergency shelter, are discharged from our residential treatment program, or are going to a new foster family placement. These bags are also given to young adults who enter our Pathways HOME program after experiencing homelessness.
